

download

This service manages user downloads for big range of data. The required aspect is defined by target property.

Supported targets

- getStatus - Returns list of available downloads in queue and their statuses which are ready and queued
- beginDownload - creates appropriate XML and serialized request object file for download agent.
- removeDownload - removes meta files and serialized object file.